

MR. ADVENTURE

JUNICHI MATSUDA 松田純一

ARTIST / COMPOSER / MUSIC PRODUCER

THE PERSON / BEHIND THE SOUND

A Life in Motion.

A life in music, shaped by the world.

Junichi Matsuda began his professional music career at 16. Over 27 years, he has created music for pop recordings, film, visual media and fashion. Projects he contributed to have collectively sold more than 5.3 million records. Having visited over 45 countries, he draws inspiration from different cultures and people. As Mr. Adventure, he explores runway sound, international collaborations and new possibilities beyond the studio.

Photograph by Ivar Savin

27
YEARS OF CREATION

5.3M+
RELATED RECORD SALES

45+
COUNTRIES VISITED

A Body of Work.

SELECTED WORKS & CREATIVE PRACTICE

01 MUSIC / SCREEN

Arranged Ayumi Hamasaki's "Endless sorrow" and composed "Daybreak". Other credits include Kumi Koda, Nogizaka46 and KAF. Created the death ringtone for the film One Missed Call. He also contributed to SUPER☆GiRLS' "MAX! Otomegokoro"; the group received the New Artist Award at the 53rd Japan Record Awards.

02 ARTIST'S SELECTION

Qi Sui 「慢慢」, Asuka Ouchi "OCEANS OF LOVE", and Natalia D "I Could Die for Love" — works he holds dear.

03 FASHION / RUNWAY

Created music for Paris Fashion Week and Rakuten Fashion Week TOKYO. His sound has accompanied shows by Borsa cicogna, meagratia and other labels.

04 GLOBAL COLLABORATION

International music productions with Ezi Q and Liisi Koikson. Composer and music director for "Purple Spiral – Shiunka" at Japan Expo in Paris. Also an official ambassador for Estonian-born neuroVIZR, extending his creative practice into fashion, technology and culture.

CREATIVE COLLABORATIONS

Maybe we should meet.

millionairevibes@gmail.com
@iamjunichimatsuda